

OBITUARIES

Wade M. Callander, 50

Wade M. Callander of Duxbury, passed away on March 18, 2016 at the age of 50. Wade was the beloved husband of Elise (Stewart) Callander, loving father of Michael and Nicole Callander of Duxbury and dear son of Ellen (Laronde) Callander of Walpole and the late Michael M. Callander. Wade also leaves a sister, Suzanne Pingeton and her husband Bobby of Franklin, a brother, Scott Callander and his wife Lynne of Goffstown, NH, many aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews and his beloved dog, T-Bone.

Wade was an avid fisherman and golfer who lived for family, friends and sports. He always had a smile, a bear hug, and an off-the-cuff joke ... and the best laugh you ever heard. Wade docked his fishing boat in Duxbury harbor and belonged to both Duxbury Yacht Club and Plymouth Country Club. A dedicated dad, he extended his love for sports into coaching for his children's sports teams in their elementary and middle-school years. A Duxbury High School graduate, Wade was a tri-captain on the football team during his own glory days. He went on to attend Ole Miss (University of Mississippi) and later returned to Massachusetts, eventually settling back into his hometown of Duxbury. In 1992, Wade took on the family business, Anchor Insurance Agency. As of 2012, he continued his insurance career at Samuel F. McCormack Adjusters. Visiting hours were held on Tuesday, March 22 at the MacDonald Funeral Home, 1755 Ocean Street, Marshfield. A funeral mass will be held 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 23 at Holy Family Church, 601 Tremont Street, Duxbury. Interment will be in Mayflower Cemetery, Duxbury. In lieu of flowers, donations in Wade's memory can be sent to the Callander Fund, care of Rockland Trust, PO Box 1627, Duxbury, MA 02331.

